From Tuesday November 10, to Saturday November 14, 1761.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 7th Day of November, 1761,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, that a great Number of Journeymen, in the Cabinet and Chair Branches, have lately entered into a Combination to lessen the Hours of their daily Work, and to raise the Price of their Piece Work; and that on Monday the 14th of September last, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, the Journeymen, in several of the Shops of the principal Cabinet and Chair-makers in London and Westminster, came in Bodies to their respective Masters, and demanded the Lessening their daily Hours of Work, and Raising the Prices of their Piece Work; which being refused, they immediately quitted their Services. That the said Masters have, by all Means, endeavoured to prevail on the said Journeymen to return to their Business, and offered them Protection and Encouragement according to their Merit; notwithstanding which, they hold frequent Meetings at Publick Houses, and raise Subscriptions among themselves for supporting such Journeymen as are unemployed, and for carrying their Demands into Execution; which, if complied with, would increase the Prices of Work, and greatly affect not only the Foreign Trade of those Commodities, but also those that are provided for Home Consumption. — And whereas it hath been further represented, That the said Journeymen Cabinet and Chair-makers, so in Combination, deter and hinder others from working as usual, and threaten them with Death or Maiming, if they do not come into, and assist them in their Demands—In order to put a Stop to such unlawful Combinations and riotous Proceedings—It is hereby Ordered in Council, That all and every His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magistrates whatsoever, do cause the Laws against such Offenders to be immediately put into Execution, and use their utmost Endeavours to put an immediate Stop to such unlawful Meetings and Combinations; and that, in order to prevent the same, they do particularly enquire into the Behaviour of all Masters of Publick Houses, where the said Journeymen assemble and resort, in order to carry on their illegal Practices, to the End that such Prosecutions may be carried on against them, as may be thought just and reasonable, to prevent this great Evil: And their Lordships do hereby Command the respective Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates, that they do, from Time to Time, transmit an exact Account of what they shall do, pursuant to this their Lordships Order, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Hen. Fane.

St. James's, November 14.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by the High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Salop.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects beg Leave to present our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty, on your auspicious Marriage, with a Princess, whom your Royal Choice hath already endeared to these Nations.

Sensible of the Blessings of Government which we enjoy under your Majesty, and happy in the Prospect of deriving the same to our Posterity, we cannot but rejoice at an Event, in which your Majesty's Happiness is so perfectly combined with that of your People. It is your Majesty's peculiar Felicity, while your Arms are crowned with Conquest Abroad, to triumph in the Affections of your People at Home; united as one Man in applauding the personal and publick Virtues of their Prince, and in offering up their Vows to Heaven for every Blessing on your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

From this happy Alliance may your Country be blessed with a Race of Princes formed to Virtue by your Example, and educated in those Principles of Government, and that sacred Regard to Law and Liberty, which have so early procured to your Majesty the Confidence of your Subjects, and have made dear to them the Memory of your illustrious Progenitors.

With these Hopes before us, we share most sensibly in the Blessings that attend your Majesty: The Interests of your Royal House are become the common Interests of your People; who think it the best Service they can render to their Country, their Allegiance to a Prince whose first Object and Happiness it is to make his Subjects happy.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Coventry, Lord Lieutenant of the said County: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Worcester.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, to approach your sacred Person, with our very sincere and affectionate Congratulations, on the happy and interesting Occasion of your Marriage with a Princess, adorned with every Virtue and Accomplishment, and of an ancient and Royal House, which early distinguished itself in embracing the true reformed Protestant Religion; and is also most acceptable and dear to us for long Attachment to your Majesty's august Family.

Such an Alliance, while it must afford the truest Happiness and Comfort to your Majesty, presages to the People of these Nations the most fortunate Events under your Majesty's Government, and gives the pleasing Hope of a Succession of Princes, who, forming their Conduct by the perfect Model of your Majesty's bright Example, shall acquire to themselves that true Glory, and confer on their Subjects that real Happiness, which are only to be found where the best of Kings reigns over the most loyal, free, and united People.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Glamorgan, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Edmond Thomas, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders of your County of Glamorgan, at Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, beg Leave to join the general Voice of your People, in offering up our moſt unfeigned and dutiful Congratulations on an Event ſo intereſting to theſe Kingdoms as your Royal Nuptials; and as your Majeſty has made Choice of a Princeſs every way formed and accompliſhed by Nature and Education to make you happy, this Country, which has already been made ſo by your Majeſty, would be moſt ungrateful, did it not feel the higheſt Satisfaction and Joy on this great Occaſion.

May that Union of Hearts ever ſubſiſt between your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, which cannot be better repreſented than by that which is eſtabliſhed between your Majeſty and your People, in a Happineſs that can know no Separation, and an Intereſt that knows no Diſtinction; and may we learn, Sir, from your Royal Example, that true publick and private Virtue ever ſubſiſts together.

We have only to add our Prayers to Heaven for this one further Confirmation of the Felicity of your Majeſty and your Subjects, in bleſſing you with a Royal Offspring that may always be the ſacred and never failing Guardians of the Happineſs and Liberty of Great Britain.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Commonalty of the County Palatine of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Frederick Vane, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Commonalty, of the County Palatine of Durham.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Commonalty, of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Nuptials with a Proteſtant Princeſs of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Mecklenburgh Strelitz.

Happy in our zealous Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, and to the Perſon of your moſt amiable Conſort, our Joy knows no Bounds. While we felicitate ourſelves, and our Fellow Subjects, on this moſt intereſting Event, we at the ſame Time carry our Views down through future Ages, and rejoice in the glorious Proſpect of a Race of Kings ſpringing from this happy Union, and inheriting, with the Britiſh Throne, the great and princely Virtues, which now ſo illuſtriouſly fill and adorn it.

And may the King of Kings hear our Prayers, and crown our Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Royal Line may never fail; that ſucceeding Generations may ſtill, as we do now, mix Love with Honour and Homage! Having equal Reaſon to love the Man, while they reverence the King, may they, after our Example, be true and faithful Subjects, as well from Affection, as from Duty. Accept, Great Sir, of this Expreſſion of our unfeigned Joy! and permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are, and ſhall at all Times be, ready to prove, by a ſpeedy Obedience to your Commands, how truly ſenſible we are of the great Felicity we enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Government.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Hereford, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Hereford

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THE Reſpect and Duty we owe your Sacred Majeſty, will not permit us to be ſilent on ſo intereſting an Event as your Auſpicious Marriage; and amongſt the loud Acclamations of Joy from other Parts of the Nation, be pleaſed to accept our humble Congratulations on that happy Occaſion, which flow from Hearts equally warm and zealous in whatſoever concerns your Majeſty's Happineſs.

Your Majeſty's Union with a Princeſs of exalted Merit, Virtue, and known Regard for the Proteſtant Religion, ſhews your Choice to have been founded on a Princely Care for the Welfare of your People; and cannot fail of encreaſing that Duty and Affection which your firſt Entering on your Government implanted in us. We have only to wiſh, that the Happineſs and Security of your Kingdoms may be ſtrengthened by a numerous Iſſue, deſcended from ſuch Parents, and to be formed under ſuch Examples.

Long may your Majeſty reign over us, and purſue thoſe Paths of true Glory in which you have hitherto trod; and may the Throne of theſe Kingdoms be eſtabliſhed in your Royal Deſcendants to the lateſt Generations.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Frederick Vane, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County Palatine of Durham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, upon two Events of the utmoſt Conſequence to this Nation, your Majeſty's auſpicious Marriage, and the Completion of that Solemnity which placed upon your Royal Head the Crown of your Anceſtors.

We can never ſufficiently expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's conſtant Care and Tenderneſs for your People on every Occaſion ſince your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms: But never could that Tenderneſs appear in a more intereſting Circumſtance, than ſharing the Honours of your Crown with a Princeſs of Proteſtant Extraction, a Princeſs whoſe amiable Qualities are not more calculated to ſecure the Bleſſings of domeſtick Happineſs, than to adorn the exalted Station in which ſhe is placed.

Long may your Majeſty live, to feel the happy Conſequences of ſuch an Union; and with the Splendour of a great and glorious King, may you enjoy the private Satisfaction of a Father, in ſeeing thoſe Virtues, which have made you the Darling of your People, tranſmitted to a numerous and amiable Family.

Given under our Common Seal at the City of Durham, this ſixth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Jeremiah Smith, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, and the Right Hon. Lord Grey, and William Bagott, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Stafford, beg Leave moſt humbly to offer to your Majeſty their ſincere Congratulations on the Occaſion of your moſt auſpicious Marriage.

Your Royal Choice of a Princeſs to be the Partner of your Throne, whoſe illuſtrious Houſe hath ever been the Friend and Protector of the Proteſtant Religion, gives the moſt univerſal Joy to your faithful Subjects, at the ſame Time that Her eminent Virtues and Princely Qualities, cannot fail of ſecuring every domeſtic Happineſs to your Majeſty.

We want Words to expreſs the high Senſe of Obligation we have to your Majeſty, for your unwearied Attention to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of your People; and for all thoſe gracious Acts which ſo conſpicuouſly adorn the Opening of your auſpicious Reign: Our Liberties confirmed, Civil Government ſtrengthened, and our excellent Conſtitution continued in its full Purity and Vigour. Benefits which we muſt at all Times reflect upon with the moſt ſincere and profound Gratitude, more eſpecially on the preſent happy Occaſion, which gives us the faireſt Hopes, that the Bleſſings we enjoy will be perpetuated to future Generations.

We have only to implore the Divine Goodneſs to bleſs your Majeſties with a long and happy Reign; and to grant, that the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms may ever be ſwayed by a Race of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty, and guided by your Example, who, to the End of Time may reign like you, Great Sir, in the Hearts of an united, loyal, free, and happy People.

Given under our Hands at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Stafford, in and for the County of Stafford, the ſixth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants, of the Tower Hamlets, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the Tower Hamlets, atended by many of the Deputy Lieutenants, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants, of the Tower Hamlets.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants, of the Tower Hamlets, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with their moſt ſincere Congratulations on Occaſion of your Auſpicious Nuptials, with a Princeſs deſcended from an Illuſtrious Proteſtant Houſe, and adorned with the moſt diſtinguiſhed Virtues; an Event moſt pleaſing to all your loyal and affectionate Subjects.

They beg Leave to add their moſt ardent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort, may long enjoy all Conjugal Felicity; and that your Subjects may have the pleaſing Proſpect of ſeeing the Bleſſings of your Reign continued, in your Royal Iſſue, to lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter, amidſt the loudeſt Acclamations of faithful Britons, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with our Tribute of Duty and Joy on your Royal Marriage with a Proteſtant Princeſs endowed with every Accompliſhment that can add a Luſtre to your Majeſty's Crown.

Warmed with every Principle of Duty, every Motive of Affection, and filled with every Sentiment of Gratitude and Intereſt, we return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for the great Happineſs we feel under your Royal Care and Protection, and for the prudent Choice your Majeſty hath made. A Choice ſo eſſential to your Majeſty's true Felicity, and the real and permanent Welfare of your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

For a Continuance of theſe invaluable Bleſſings for the general Proſperity of your People, we pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious, and that, under a Succeſſion of Princes from this joyful Event, our Proſpects of Happineſs may be continued to all ſucceeding Generations.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed the Eighth Day of October, in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign over us.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of York, has been preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Liſter Kaye, Bart. High Sheriff for the County of York: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of York, rejoicing on every Acceſſion of Honour and Happineſs to our Country, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with the moſt humble and hearty Aſſurances of the Joy and Satisfaction we feel on your Majeſty's happy Marriage with our moſt gracious Sovereign.

The ardent Zeal of our Hearts for every Thing conducive to His Majeſty's Felicity, and the Expectation of a Princeſs ſo amiable for Her perſonal Merit, and that of Her Illuſtrious Family, rendered us peculiarly anxious for the Completion of an Event, equally important to the King and to His People.

Senſible, as we are, of our preſent Happineſs, we joyfully contemplate an Alliance, which opens ſo fair a Proſpect of its Permanency and Stability; a Proſpect enriched with every Object, which ought to be eſteemed and valued by a free and Proteſtant Kingdom.

May your Majeſty long be the happy Conſort of the beſt of Kings; and may Britain derive from this propitious Marriage, a Race of Princes deſtined, like their Royal and Noble Anceſtors, to be the Patrons of the Proteſtant Cauſe, the Guardians of their Country's Liberties, and the Aſſertors of the Rights of Mankind.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter, has been preſented to Her Majeſty: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Wincheſter.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the general Rejoicings of your faithful Subjects, permit the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the loyal City of Wincheſter, with grateful Hearts, to join their humble Offering of Congratulations to your Majeſty on your auſpicious Marriage with our moſt auguſt Sovereign; an Event productive of the trueſt Joy to every Well Wiſher to his Country.

It is with the utmoſt Pleaſure we behold ſuch univerſal Acclamations to welcome your Majeſty to this happy happy Nation, and to the Arms of the best of Kings that ever adorned the British Throne.

May the Great and Supreme Disposer of all Events for ever bless your Majesties with every Degree of Happiness, and that there never may be wanting Descendants from these happy Nuptials, to govern and bless these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the eighth Day of October, in the first Year of your Majesty's happy Reign over us.

Au Roy,

La tres humble Adresse des Ministres et Conducteurs des Eglizes Hollandoise et Françoise, fondées par Patente du Roy Edoüard Sixieme, retablie par la Reine Elizabeth, et confirmée par ses Successeurs.

SIRE!

LES Conducteurs des Eglizes Hollandoise et Françoise aussi anciennes que la Reformation, et fondées dans cette Capitale par des Lettres Patentes du Roy Edoüard VI. rétablies par la Reine Elizabeth, et confirmées dans leurs Priviléges par tous ses Successeurs, prennent la Liberté d'approcher de votre Majesté avec des Cœurs pénétrés de la plus sincére Joye, et de la féliciter d'un Evénement qui intereſſe la Religion, l'Etat, toute la Nation aussi bien qu'Elle.

Lorsqu'on envisage la Royauté comme une Obligation de procurer; de travailler, du moins a procurer, le Bonheur de ceux que le Roy des Roys lui a soumis; lorsque comme votre Majesté on remplit dignement une si pénible Obligation, la Couronne est un pesant Fardeau si c'est un Ornement respectable, et des Peuples reconnoissans doivent trembler qu'elle n'accable celui qui la porte: Nous nous joignons, Sire, a vos Sujets les plus zélés, et nous reconnoissons avec la plus vive Gratitude les Soins paternels et assidus que votre Majesté se donne pour nous rendre un Peuple respectable, floriſſant, heureux; Mais nous apprehendons que ces soins trop laborieux n'altérent une Santé à la quelle sont attachéz la Prosperité de l'Etat, et le Maintien de la Religion; dans cette Apprehension nous bénissons l'Arbitre de toutes Choses de ce qu'il vient d'unir a votre Majesté une Princesse selon son Cœur, et le votre, dont les rares Perfections, et les Qualités aimables si bien assorties a sa haute Destination sont si propres à adoucir vos Peines, à alleger votre Fardeau, et a nous conserver le Present qu'un Dieu bienfaisant nous a fait dans ses misericordes.

Aujourdhui nous n'aurions rien à désirer, si placée au dessus des Humains votre Majesté étoit a l'abri des Accidents de l'Humanité; mais les meilleurs Rois sont Mortels comme les autres Hommes, l'Exemple de votre illustre Ayeul nous en auroit douloureuses ment convaincu si son Petit-fils n'eut essuyé nos Larmes, avant, presqu'avant qu'elles eussent commencé a couler, surpassé même notre Espérance, et rempli dignement sa Place.

Sensibles a notre Bonheur, nous reculerons par des Vœux ardens et redoublés le Terme fatal qui enlêvera a l'Angleterre le Pére de ses Peuples, et le meilleur de ses Rois; une Modelle de Modération, et un Modelle de Piété, rares sur le Thrône: Mais malgré tous nos Efforts il arrivera ce Terme si redouté! Cette Reflection, Sire! nous accableroit, et son Amertume empoisoneroit la Douceur de notre Vie, si nous ne nous flattions de trouver dans votre Mariage une Espéce d'Eternité, et que nos Enfans, et les Enfans de nos Enfans verront jusqu'a la Consummation des Siécles des Descendans, et des Représentans de votre Majesté sur le Thrône de la Grande Bretagne. Nous le demanderons avec Ferveur pour le Bien de la Posterité la plus reculée, et par là nous croirons nous acquitter en quelque Maniére des grandes Obligations que nous, et nos Prédécesseurs avons à cette généreuse et compatissante Nation: Il n'est pas possible que le Sang des Georges dégénére assez pour ne pas faire sa Gloire et son Bonheur.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

YOUR dutiful Congratulations, on the happy Occasion of My Marriage, are very acceptable to Me; and You may depend on My Protection.

The following Address has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

A la Reine.

MADAME,

LA même Providence qui donne les Vertus les place lorsqu'Elle le juge à propos dans le Jour le plus brillant; Elle avoit sans doute destiné votre Majesté au Throne, puisqu'Elle a pris soin de l'orner de toutes les Graces, de tous les Talens de l'Esprit, et de toutes les Qualités du Cœur qui peuvent en soutenir la Splendeur.

Au milieu des Acclamations de tous les Ordres de l'Etat, les Eglizes Hollandoise et Françoise se tiennent infiniment honorées d'etre admises à porter aux Pieds de vôtre Majesté leurs Felicitations, et le Tribut de leurs humbles Hommages.

Un Roy dont les Vertus éminentes ont devancé les Années, a choisi votre Majesté pour partager sa Gloire; le Ciel en versant sur vous tous ses dons semble vous avoir fait naitre pour le Bonheur de ce Roy, les Delices de son Peuple; une Nation entiere qui place sa Felicité dans l'attente d'une Succession non interrompüe se livre à cette douce Espérance; Ne temoignerions nous pas nôtre Sensibilité à la Joye commune? Ne joindrions nous pas nos Actions de Graces à celles qu'une juste Reconnoissance fait addresser de toutes parts au Tout-Puissant!

NosEglizes quoyqu'Etrangeres dans ces Royaumes sont honorées des les Tems d'Edoüard VI. de glorieuse Memoire de la Protection Royale, et de cette Protection depend aprés Dieu leur Conservation, et leur Prosperité; Daignés Madame nous recommander dans l'Occasion à celle de Sa Majesté, daignés nous prendre sous la vôtre, et l'Ardeur de nos Voeux au Ciel pour qu'il prolonge au delà des Bornes ordinaires des Jours, aussi precieux, pourqu'Il les fasse couler dans la Joye et dans la Paix, pourqu'Il éternize votre Nom, et votre Memoire par une longue suite de Princes fidéles Imitateurs des Vertus de leurs Augustes Parens, égalera la Sincerité de notre profonde Soumission, et la Vivacité de notre trés respectüeux Devoüement.

Dusseldorff, Oct. 29. The heavy Rains, we have lately had, have rendered the Roads in this Country so bad, that it is with Difficulty a Wheel-Carriage passes, and have obliged Prince Soubize to put his Army into Quarters of Cantonments about Essen. The Dislocation of the Army will be soon made, and the Regiments will not have far to march to their Winter-Quarters, as this City, Cologne, Wesel, Rees, Cleves, and Aix la Chapelle, will easily contain all the Infantry: The Cavalry, now consisting of twenty-four Squadrons, will have Winter-Quarters assigned them on the Left of the Rhine.

Wesel, Nov. 1. The Inspectors having reviewed the Troops, the Dislocation of the Army, under the Command of Prince Soubize, is now made. Ten Battalions are marched into this Town. The rest of the Troops will be put into Garrison at Rees, Cleves, Dusseldorff, Cologn, Aix la Chapelle, &c.

Liege, Oct. 31. The French Court have demanded of this State, Winter Quarters for the Gendarmerie. As soon as that Corps were apprized of it, they sent an Express to the Duke of Choiseul, with their Reasons for desiring Leave to return to France. The Answer is soon expected.

Four Battalions of French Guards have passed through this City in their Way to Brussels; one with another they are yet about Five hundred and twenty Men each.

This

This Day the first Battalion of Swiss Guards arrived here; they are not so strong as the French Guards, having suffered by Desertion, but they make a better Appearance.

Liege, Nov. 2. The second Battalion of Swiss Guards arrived here To-day; they march To-morrow to Huy, and from thence to Waseige and Perwez into France, which is the same Road the French Guards took.

Hambourg, Nov. 2. According to Advices from Magdebourg of the 30th past, Colberg continued to defend itself: However, the Prussians have lost two Detachments, which were to have served as Convoy to a Transport with Provisions, &c. coming from Stettin; and notwithstanding General de Platen likewise marched himself to Goldnow to cover the same, and had repulsed the Enemy, he was nevertheless obliged to send the Transport back to Dam; after which General Platen marched to Stargard. The King of Prussia was yet, on the 27th, at Strelen.

Hambourg, Nov 3. According to Letters from Brunswick of the 30th past, Marshal Broglio having been joined by the Corps of M. de Stainville, which had been employed this whole Campaign in Hesse, seemed to be making Dispositions, as if he intended a second Attempt on that Town, and Wolfenbuttle. Prince Frederick had occupied the first with 11 Battalions, and General Luckner the latter with 6. The Hereditary Prince, with 20 Battalions, and 24 Squadrons, remained still encamped near Hildersheim, to watch the future Motions of the Enemy.

Hague, Nov. 6. Our Advices from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Ohr, are of the 29th of October, at which Time no considerable Alteration had happened in the Position of either Army. Marshal Broglio continued to put the greatest Part of his Army into Cantonment; and, by several Dispositions which were making, it was natural to imagine he intended to withdraw his Troops from their present Situation, and take up his Winter Quarters as last Year.

The Prince of Soubise has made a Shew of attacking Ham, instead of passing the Rhine, and has fortified the Posts of Anholt and Yssselbourg; but as different Detachments of Prince Ferdinand's Army are within Reach of Ham, which is likewise supported by the Garrisons of Munsten and Lipstadt, it is not imagined that the Prince of Soubise will attempt any thing; on the contrary, the Advices from along the Rhine continue to give an Account of the Dispositions making for the Troops entering into Winter Quarters. The Prince of Soubise's Quarters were at Calcum, near Keyserswerth, on the 31st of October.

The Russians are said to have prevented a large Prussian Convoy from arriving at Colberg, which makes the Fate of that Place more uncertain, and especially, as the main Body of the Russian Army is drawing nearer to it.

Accounts from Silesia of the 24th ult. mention, that the King of Prussia, having had Information that General Laudohn had detached a large Corps of Troops from his Army, sent a Reinforcement to the Garrison of Glogau, where he apprehended an Attempt might be made; but that the Austrian Detachment was since moved towards Freydenburg on the Queiss, and it was supposed would proceed thro' Lusatia into Saxony, to join Marshal Daun.

By Letters from Saxony of the 28th ult. we are informed, that Marshal Daun's Army had lately felled a great Number of Trees on the Side of Freyburg, and had made also several Changes in its Position; but it did not yet appear what was the Marshal's Design.

Admiralty Office, November 13.

His Majesty's Sloop the Hornet, commanded by Captain Johnstone, being on a Cruize, took, on the 26th of last Month, 100 Leagues West of the Rock of Lisbon, Hereux, a small Snow Privateer with 50 Men; and, the same Day, after a long Chace, retook her Prize the Bee, a Snow loaded with Fish from Newfoundland, bound to Lisbon, and has carried them both into that Port.

Admiralty Office, November 18.

His Majesty's Ship the Dorsetshire, commanded by Captain John Campbell, in her Way to Lisbon, took, on the 11th past, the Henry, a Snow Privateer belonging to Bayonne, of 10 Guns and 58 Men, and has carried her into Lisbon.

Navy Office, November 5, 1761.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Tuesday the 24th Instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, Commissioner Hughes will expose to Sale at the Pay Office in His Majesty's Yard at Portsmouth, several Lots of unserviceable Stores, consisting of Old Canvas in Paper Stuff, old Hammocoes with Clews, old Rope, ditto in Paper Stuff, Junk in Paper Stuff, White Ocham, Hemp, Rubbish, Shakings, and ditto decayed; where any Persons willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them at any Time in the common Working Hours of the said Yards, till the Day of Sale: And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by those who shall purchase the said Lots, all Persons that shall attend the said Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose. And unless the Stores so purchased shall be paid for and taken away at the End of forty Days, after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown.

Victualling Office, November 11, 1761.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 23d Instant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they shall be ready to treat for Oxen for fresh Meat for His Majesty's Ships at Portsmouth, for three Months, commencing the 1st of December next, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

Lead Office, November 12, 1761.
